LETTER FROM FAR-OFF INDIA

Christian County Boy Succeeding as Foreign Missionary.

Rev. Hugh Gregory, a Christian county boy, is a missionary of the Methodist church in India, where he went several years ago. The following extract from a letter to his friend, Mr. Geo. R. Pierce, written from Vasind Thana, India, Jan. 20, is published by permission:

Vasind Thana, India.
Jan. 20, 1911.
"God is blessing me and helping me in many ways. I am doing Evangelistic work now instead of building as formerly. I have just returned from a big Hindoo fair, where we had many opportunities to preach God's word. We preached to many who never heard the Gospel before, distributed nearly 275 Gospels, besides tracts. Pray for us. Both children are well and bright and happy. Mrs. Gregory keeps well.

We were formerly at Keharch, but moved to Vasind about two months ago and from here expect to do Evangelistic work. I am getting ready for another trip into the Jungle to visit villages which have never been visited by a missionary. Pray for us that God may bless and use us for His glory, and that He will supply the extra needs required for touring in the Jungle.

Remember me to all the kind friends, who are praying for me and write me when you can.

With much love and best wishes I am your friend,

A. H. Gregory.

NASH—Rev. Chas. H. Nash, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, has retired from the ministry, at least for the present. He resigned his pastorate at Hawkinsville, Ga., about the first of the year and has bought a home in Greensboro, N. C., where his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Harrison, lives. Dr. Nash's old trouble with his knee has returned and his leg is now in a plaster cast and he is unable to walk. His friends here will regret to learn of his misfortune.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

STATE WILL AID

In Erecting $15,000 Armory, Says Frankfort Dispatch.

A Frankfort dispatch says the state will assist in building two armories, one at Ashland to cost $25,000 and one in Hopkinsville to cost $15,000, for use of the military companies located at those two places. Both buildings will be handsome and well adapted to the purpose. The erection of these armories is in line with the plan to improve the facilities of the state guard and put the companies on a sounder basis.

Nothing is known here of the movement referred to. The City Council is considering plans for an annex to the City Hall with a basement story suitable to be rented for an armory.

It's a short lane that has no turn?

THE MAGAZINES

National Magazine.

With a gayety rated unusual for the dignified National Magazine, with its strong masculine covers and lusty spirit, the current issue of Joe Chapple's Boston Magazine appears with a shy and sweet sixteen head—and hair arranged in the very latest coiffure. The effect is positively stunning.

Announcement is made that William Hodge, the "Man from Home," is to be preented as an author. The opening chapters of the serial story "The Guest of Honor," are to appear in the March National, and the editor avers that William Hodge will shine in the literary firmament as brightly as it has in drama.

Joe Chapple opens his Washington Department with the comment that the personal correspondence between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt suggests the mellifluous of the Valentine month. There is a dash of elbow gossip about every phase of government affairs at Washington, and the inimitable stories from the cloak room are told as only the editor of the National can tell them.

The Smart Set For March.

James Barnes novel "Unexplained" is the feature of the SMART SET for March. This novel presents a picture of New York society. The hero is a young man who acts the part of good friend to all his acquaintances—the sort of person to whom everyone turns in time of trouble and who finds himself left in the lurch while his friends go carelessly on to enjoy the freedom from worry secured through his efforts. There are many such "friends in need."

An Amateur Hobo," by Elliott Flower, is a tale of an unusual wager in which a man of wealth and social position assumes a peculiar role.

"The Little Voice," by Jay Hardy tells of a psychic experiment worked by a couple of Americans in Paris—with an interesting conclusion.

"The Flavor of life," by Ellen Heney is a story of a woman who gives up her illusions and decides that a husband makes a good substitute. "Frozen Fire," by Frank K. M. Rehn, Jr., shows the fatal result of repressing all one's healthy emotions. "The Trinity Miraud," by Mabel Wood Martin, is a moving story of an artist's ideals. "Paula's Red Hair," by Aura Woodin Brentzell, is a tale of chorus girl life and an ascent into higher realms.

Franz Moinar, who wrote that wonderful play of a few seasons ago "The Devil," contributes, in collaboration with Joseph Teleki, a clever one-act sketch entitled "The Actress," which is a scene between a wife and the woman who has stolen her husband's love.

Other features of this number of the SMART SET include "The Unbeliever" a powerful story on a religious theme by M. F. Carny."

From State wide to Local Option.

The Alabama Senate passed the Parks local option bill by a vote of 21 to 12 in the same shape as it came from the house. Gov. O'Neal will sign the measure, but it will not become effective until the Legislature passes laws regulating the sale of liquor.

HIGH CLASS

Concert Givers at the Tabernacle February 22.

The Skovgaard Concert Party which will appear at the tabernacle tomorrow night under the Auspices of Bethel Female College, is a party of highclass concert givers of exceptional merit, presenting a repertoire worthy the consideration of the finest musician and average listener. Skovgaard's violin is a magnificent Stradivarius instrument for which he paid $13,000 and was made in 1712.

The advance sale of tickets to the entertainment has been large and the company will be greeted with a good house.

The Woman in The Case.

—Philadelphia Inquirer: Wonder whether Mary Garden's new book will be bound in undressed kid?

—Pensacola Journal. Does Lillian Russell or Nat Goodwin hold the championship?

—New York World: Mme. Marie has been excluded from the French Academy of Sciences not because she is not sufficiently great a woman, but because she is a woman.

—Chicago Record Herald: Nellie Bly reports that her husband has run away with her money. Do you happen to be old enough to remember Nellie?

—Pittsburg Gazette-Times: In other words, Mme. Bernhardt will not give her farewell performance until the Panama Canal makes its debut.

—Milwaukee Sentinel: The fact that Mme. Calve is ill in Japan may be seized upon by Mr. Hobson as an excuse for throwing another one of his well known oratorical somersaults.
